CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PROHIBITION OF INSIDER TRADING

1. Introduction

Insider Trading means dealing in securities of a company by its directors, employees, designated person or other insiders based on unpublished price sensitive information. Such dealing by insiders erode the investors' confidence in the integrity of the management and is unhealthy for the capital markets.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), in its endeavor to protect the interests of the investors in general, had formulated the SEBI (Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015, as amended from time to time, under the powers conferred on it under the SEBI Act, 1992. These regulations came into force with effect from 15th May, 2015 and the same were made applicable to all companies whose shares were listed on Indian stock exchanges.

In line with the code of conduct and in order to comply with the mandatory requirements of the regulations, the Company has formulated a specific code of conduct for use by its directors, officers and designated persons. This Code of Conduct has been made pursuant to Regulation 9 of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulation, 2015, and may be modified by the Board of Directors of the Company from time to time.

The Code is based on the principle that Designated Person of a company owes a fiduciary duty to the shareholders of the company and should place the interest of the shareholders above their own by conducting their personal securities transactions in a manner that does not create any conflict of interest. The Code is also intended to serve as a guiding charter for all concerned persons associated with the functioning of the company and their dealings in securities. Further, the Code also seeks to ensure timely and adequate disclosure of price sensitive information to the investors by the company so as to enable them to take informed investment decisions with regard to the company's securities.

This Code of Conduct has been adopted by the Board of Directors of A2Z Infra Engineering Limited in its meeting held on 9th May, 2015 and effective from 15th May, 2015. Subsequently, pursuant to the amendment of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 vide SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Amendment) Regulations, 2018, which is effective from April 01, 2019, the Board of Directors at their meeting held on February 13, 2019 reviewed and revised this Code and have approved the same to be applicable with effect from April 01, 2019.

Subsequently, pursuant to the amendment of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 vide SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) (Third Amendment) Regulations, 2019, which is effective from December 25, 2019, the Board of Directors at their meeting held on November 14, 2019 reviewed and revised this Code and have approved the same to be applicable with effect from December 25, 2019.

3.6 Obtaining disclosures from Promoters, Promoter Group, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Designated Persons and other connected persons and to give information, in respect of the disclosures received, to all the Stock Exchanges where the securities are listed, as applicable.

3.7 Shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and to the Chairman of the Board of Directors on quarterly basis.

4. Communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

4.1 Preservation of “Price Sensitive Information”

All information shall be handled within the Company on a “need-to-know” basis. It should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty. No insider shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to a Company or securities, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Explanation – For the purpose of illustration, the term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of these regulations.

Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction which entails:

- an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attracting the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Listed Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

The board of directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this provision along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

4.2 Need to Know:

- i. "Need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- ii. All non-public information directly received by any employee or designated person should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

4.3 Limited access to confidential information:

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

5. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

- 5.1 No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information: –

Explanation –When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Except in the below mentioned cases insider may prove his innocence:-

- a) the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of clause 4.1 above and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-clause 4.1 above.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Every company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- b) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of clause 4.1 above and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-clause 4.1 above.

- c) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.

- d) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

- e) in the case of non-individual insiders: –

- i) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

- ii) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

f) The trades were pursuant to a trading plan prescribed by SEBI (Insider Trading) regulations, 2015.

5.2 Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all unpublished price sensitive information. They shall, while in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information, neither trade in the securities of the Company on the basis of unpublished price sensitive information nor pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for trading in securities of the Company.

6. Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

6.1 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

6.2 Trading Plan shall:

- i. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- ii. not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- iii. entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- iv. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- v. set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- vi. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

6.3 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the code and shall be entitled to seek express undertakings that:

- i. the person is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information; or
 - ii. he would ensure that any unpublished price sensitive information in his possession becomes generally available before he commences his trades;
- or such other undertaking as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. The Compliance Officer may thereafter approve the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan.

Provided further that trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

6.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- 6.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

7. Trading Window and Window Closure

- 7.1 Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with this Code and the Regulations. Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used as an instrument of monitoring trading by the Designated Persons. The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

Trading restriction period can be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

- 7.2 The notice of closure of Trading Window intimated to the Stock Exchanges, if any, wherever the securities of the Company are listed, by the Compliance Officer, shall be deemed as intimation to the Designated Persons/Insiders for adherence and compliance with this Code.
- 7.3 The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.
- 7.4 The "Trading Window" shall, inter-alia, remain closed from the date of intimation, to the Stock Exchanges, of the date of Board Meeting/Committee Meeting for declaration /publication of the Annual /Half Yearly /Quarterly financial results or recommendation/declaration of dividend, until 48 hours after the said results/dividend detail is made generally available; and
- 7.5 Trading Window may be closed by the Company during such time in addition to the above period, as it may deem fit by the Compliance Officer.

8. Pre-clearance of trades

- 8.1 When the trading window is open, trading by Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall be subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trades is above threshold limit.
- 8.2 Designated Persons / their immediate relatives intending to deal in the securities of the Company upto the threshold limit, as defined and provided hereinbefore, may do so without any pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer. In all other cases, they should pre-clear the transactions as per the pre-dealing procedure as provided hereinafter.
- 8.3 Designated Persons / their immediate relatives shall make an application in the prescribed Form I, to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that he/she intends to deal in, the details as to the depository(ies) with which he/she maintains a Demat/Trading account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in this matter.

8.4 He / She shall execute an undertaking in favour of the Company, incorporating, therein, inter alia, the following clauses:

- i. that he/she does not have any access or has not received Unpublished Price Sensitive Information upto the time of signing the undertaking;
- ii. that in case he/she has access to or receives Unpublished Price Sensitive Information after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his/her position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes generally available;
- iii. that he/she has not contravened any provisions of this Code and the Regulations;
- iv. that he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the said matter.

8.5 The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list of such securities as a “restricted list” which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for preclearance of trades.

8.6 Designated Persons / their immediate relatives shall execute their transactions in respect of securities of the Company within seven (7) trading days after the approval of pre-clearance is given failing which the transaction has to be pre-cleared again. Reporting of trades executed or decisions not to trade and recording of such reasons shall be made/done in Form II. They shall not execute a contra trade during the six months following the prior transaction. In case of emergency the six months holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer (application to be made in Form III) after recording in writing the reasons in this regard provided that such relaxation does not violate this Code/ Regulations.

8.7 In case of the Compliance Officer intending to deal in the securities of the Company beyond the threshold limit, the pre-clearance of the Managing Director or in his absence, the Chairman of the Board, will have to be obtained. Similarly in case of emergency Compliance Officer may obtain the waiver from the Managing Director or in his absence, the Chairman of the Board, provided that such relaxation does not violate this Code/ Regulations.

8.8 In case a contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Board for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Board under the Act.

- b. In addition to the action which may be taken by the Company, the persons violating the Regulations or this Code shall also be subject to action under SEBI Act. In case of any violation, the Board of Directors shall inform the Board accordingly.

19. Institutional Mechanism for Prevention of Insider trading

19.1 The Chief Executive Officer, Managing Director or Compliance Officer shall check the internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in the code to prevent insider trading.

19.2 The internal controls shall include the following:

- a) all employees who have access to unpublished price sensitive information are identified as designated employee;
- b) all the unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified and its confidentiality shall be maintained as per the requirements of the code;
- c) adequate restrictions shall be placed on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information as required by the code;
- d) lists of all employees and other persons with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared shall be maintained and confidentiality agreements shall be signed or notice shall be served to all such employees and persons;
- e) all other relevant requirements specified under the code shall be complied with;
- f) periodic process review to evaluate effectiveness of such internal controls.

19.3 The board of directors of the company shall ensure that the Chief Executive Officer or the Managing Director or such other analogous person ensures compliance with sub-clause (1) and (2) of this clause.

19.4 The Audit Committee of the company shall review compliance with the provisions of this code at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

- 19.5 In case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, Compliance Officer shall initiate appropriate inquiries on becoming aware of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information and inform the Board promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries.
- 19.6 If an inquiry has been initiated by the company in case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, the relevant intermediaries and fiduciaries shall co-operate with the company in connection with such inquiry conducted by the company.

20. General

Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) immediate relatives
- b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship
- c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

Explanation – The term “material financial relationship” shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of such payer’s annual income but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm’s length transactions.

The decision of the Board of Directors with regard to any or all matters relating to this Code shall be final and binding on all concerned.

AMENDMENTS TO THE POLICY

The Board of Directors on its own can amend this Policy, as and when deemed fit. Any or all provisions of this Policy would be subject to revision/amendment in accordance with the Rules, Regulations, Notifications etc. on the subject as may be issued by relevant statutory authorities, from time to time.

In case of any amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. issued by the relevant authorities, not being consistent with the provisions laid down under this Policy, then such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc. shall prevail upon the provisions hereunder and this Policy shall stand amended accordingly from the effective date as laid down under such amendment(s), clarification(s), circular(s) etc.
